WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

LITANY FOR THE REMEMBRANCE OF THE SAINTS (JOHN 11:25-27)

P: Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

C: "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who has come into the world."

HYMN #414 "HOLY GOD, WE PRAISE YOUR NAME"

P: We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses both here on earth and in the heavens. Praise the Lord for their faithfulness! Praise the Lord for their lives! Praise the Lord, whose cross has turned sinners into saints!

C: Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. Behold the Lamb, Jesus Christ, whose blood has washed our stained robes to brilliant white. Alleluia!

HYMN #422: "FOR ALL THE SAINTS" (v1)

♪ For all the saints who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

P: The grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

P: When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried, therefore, with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life.

C: For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

P: When we were baptized into Christ Jesus, we were born anew to a living hope.

C: By water and the Word we were made children of God. In baptism, God forgives us all our sins and unites us to the church, which is the community of saints on earth.

P: Let us pray.

Almighty God, gracious Lord, we thank you that your Holy Spirit renews the church in every age. Pour out your Holy Spirit on your faithful people. Keep them steadfast in your word, protect and comfort them in times of trial, defend them against all enemies of the gospel, and bestow on the church your saving peace, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

All Saints Day

All Saints Day, also known as All Hallows Day, All Hallows Feast, the Holiday of All Saints, Hallowmas, and the Feast of All Saints, is a Christian solemnity observed in honor of all the church's saints, whether they are well-known or obscure.

Feasts honoring all Christian martyrs have been observed since the fourth century on various dates close to Easter and Pentecost. Some churches in the British Isles started celebrating All Saints Day on November 1 in the ninth century. In the ninth century, Pope Gregory IV expanded this to the entire Catholic church. It is still observed on November 1st by the Roman Catholic Church as well as numerous Protestant denominations, including the Methodist, Lutheran, and Anglican traditions. It is observed on the first Sunday following Pentecost by the Eastern Orthodox Church and its affiliated Eastern Catholic and Eastern Lutheran churches. All Saints Day is observed by the Church of the East, the Syro-Malabar Church, and the Chaldean Catholic Church, the latter of which is in communion with Rome. The Coptic Orthodox calendar places All Saints Day on Nayrouz, which is observed on September 11th. The Coptic new year and its first month, Thout, begin on this day.

WHAT IS ALL SAINTS DAY?

All Saints Day is a religious holiday celebrated all around the world on November 1st. It commemorates the martyrs – specifically, Christian saints who died for their faith in the 3rd and 4th centuries. Most of the traditions surrounding the holiday focus on celebrating the deceased saints, and it is often used to commemorate the deceased relatives of the celebrant. It is also a day to remember the deceased members of one's church. All Saints Day is a day of celebration and remembrance, and it is a great opportunity to learn more about the history and definition of saints.

ALL SAINTS DAY: WHY DO WE CELEBRATE IT?

Why do we observe All Saints Day today in light of this? In the end, this feast (together with All Souls Day) is rooted in the notion that those who are alive are related to those who are in heaven. In Christianity, it's necessary to remember the deceased, especially those who had lives of devotion.

On All Saints Day, we honor the saints and give them praise for their dedication and service. Not all well-known saints have their own unique days of remembering, despite the fact that many do. This is a day to give thanks to both well-known saints and less well-known ones. Saints Day is all about it.

All saints: Once more, Easter is a chance to honor saints who may not already have a dedicated feast day (like St. Patrick). It's crucial to acknowledge the saints steadfast adherence to their religion, even though they are only known to God.

Salvation: Though there is a focus on the saints themselves, this is also a time to recognize the role they play in salvation. In Christianity, anyone can bring others to God, and this is something to celebrate.

Togetherness: Lastly, All Saints Day is a moment to come together as Christians. This is a time for togetherness, family, and remembrance. There are many community and family events, and this holiday has a special place in many lives.

All Saints Day is a chance for Christians to reflect on the value of charity and forgiveness in their lives as well as on the importance of being good examples towards others by practicing kindness, love, and respect in everyday life.

In many Lutheran churches, All Saints Day is celebrated the Sunday after Reformation is celebrated (the date for Reformation is 31 October, so Reformation Sunday is celebrated on or before 31 October). In most congregations, the festival is marked as an occasion to remember the dead. The names of those who have died from the congregation within the last year are read during worship and a bell is tolled, a chime is played or a candle is lit for each name read. While the dead are solemnly remembered during worship on All Saints Sunday, the festival is ultimately a celebration of Christ's victory over death.
